Some activities of this event may be scheduled on dates other than the ones set above. The iMed Conference[®] provides various services: (a) scientific education through workshops, lectures, print and multimedia items; (b) competitions for the participants of the Event; (c) social activities for the participants of the Event and guests from the Organisation — the Sunset; (f) advertising information from our sponsors to the Event's participants, media, guests, speakers, staff and Organisation.

This website provides information for the Event, including but not limited to the information about the Event, promotional offers, sales, sponsorship, and networking opportunities for those studying in the Life Sciences field.

ELIGIBILITY

You must be 16 or older and you must study and/or work in the Life Sciences field. The fields included as part of the "Life Sciences" definition are selected by AEFCM and may or may not be disclosed. Media, guests, speakers, Organisation and staff members may not be included in the above criteria.

There are no restrictions on the nationality of participants. However the non understanding of the Event's official language (British English) is your responsibility and the Organisation will not support any means of translation.

If you are registering on behalf of a third party, you represent and warrant that you are at least 16 years old and are authorised to accept these Terms on behalf of each person that you register, and that each person you register agrees to be bound by these Terms.

Only participants over 18 years of age can enroll on the iMed Sunset.

REGISTRATION

All participants must register for the Event and all its activities at <https://aefcm.up.events/>, except if you are coming through our International Ambassadors Programme. Registration will be available from the 19th of July to the day of the event, except if the event is sold out or any other reason appointed by the Organising Committee or the AEFM UpEvents Platform.

By using this Platform and/or by registering for the Event, you agree in providing solely true and updated information. You also agree in providing accessible contacts, e.g. Address, Mobile Phone, etc.

The Organising Committee shall not be held responsible if this Platform stops working at the moment of registration, since it would be due to an external problem from an overload of assessment or other incidents that may exist. The Organising Committee will find a solution in the shortest period of time.

Registration is dependent on your email. The Organisation is not responsible if you provide non-valid or inaccessible email even if payment is already made.

Registration will allow you to select the activities of the Event in which you wish to enroll. The selection you make may be subject to change by the Organisation without any warning in advance.

VACANCIES

You understand that pursuant to safety and other regulations which AEFM must comply with, presentations, lectures, workshops, activities, etc (collectively, “activities”) within the Event will be subject to maximum capacity limitations. You agree that taking part in the congress’ activities shall be permitted on a “first come, first served” basis and that once the space allocated for an activity has reached its full capacity, we will not be able to allow your entry.

By registering for the Event you agree that all activities have limited vacancies and that you may not attend some of the Event’s activities.

In some situations, the Organisation may not provide you a place in the activities you are registered in. In extreme circumstances, the Organisation may not be able to provide you with a place in the Event’s venue.

AEFCM reserves the right to evaluate each participant’s registration in the Event’s activities and to exclude the participant if the case presents non-regular attributes.

The Event’s main activities that are included in the basis price of a ticket (see “Prices”) are the following: Keynote Lectures, Scientific Lectures, Humanitarian Lectures, iMed Sessions, Competitions and Workshops.

All the other activities of the Event, such as the iMed Sunset, may incur extra fees.

All taxes and fees concerning the use of any payment method are supported by you.

All payments must be made in Euros (EUR). Admission to the Event will not be granted without payment being received in full by the applicable due date. AEFCM's receipt of an application for registration and/or you making payment for registration does not constitute

REFUNDS AND CANCELLATION PROCESS

All sales are final. You will be liable for the cost of your admission to the Event including any subsequent cancellation or your failure to attend.

No refund is given if you can not attend the conference except when you can prove, with an official paper, that you are under the following situations: (1): severe sickness or death of a relative or close person; (2): For international students, in the case of flight cancelling without the possibility of attending more than 1/3 of the event; (3): Members who have applied and have been accepted to the iMed Crew, while holding the ticket for the event.

AEFM reserves the right to cancel your registration without notice if payment as required by these Terms is not received by AEFM in a timely fashion or if you fail to provide details as required in the relevant Registration Form.

If a refund is approved by the Organisation, the funds will be transferred to you by bank transfer to the International Bank Account Number (IBAN) provided by you in a written email sent from the email address corresponding - according to our databases - to the registration account to be refunded. All taxes and fees applied to the refund transfer will be supported by you. There is no refund of taxes paid. There is no deadline for the refund to be completed. For the avoidance of doubt, you agree that in no event shall AEFM be held liable for any other costs or damages, direct or indirect, consequential, compensatory, punitive, incidental, special or general resulting from such a postponement or cancellation, including travel and accommodation.

SUBSTITUTIONS AND RETURN POLICY

Requests for substitution of a registered Event attendee with an alternative person must be made by writing to customer.support@imedconference.org and sent by the same email address registered in the UpEvents platform account. Such requests shall be approved or denied by AEFM at its sole discretion. Such requests should include (i) the registered Event attendee's full name, government ID and iMed registration number, (ii) evidence of permission of the original registered Event attendee to allow substitution of an alternative person, and (iii) the name, government ID and email of the proposed substitute registrant. The cost of substituting a registered Event attendee will vary based on the registration price of the original attendee and the registration price that applied at the moment of substitution and to the substitute. The balance due to AEFM for the original registration fee plus the fee for substitution (when applicable) must be paid in full before a substitution will be permitted.

The difference between the price paid by the original registered Event attendee and the current price of registration during the substitution process will be summed to the substitution fee. Should the alternative person belong to a different segment, the difference between rates will also be summed to the substitution fee. If the alternative person belongs to a segment with a lower registration fee, no refunds shall be given.

According to the situation evaluated by the customer service, the registration will be done either on the AEFM UpEvents Platform on <https://aefcm.up.events/>, or manually by the Organisation with information transmitted by the alternative person email address. Payment of a substitute registration indicated by the customer support to be done manually, will be made through bank transfer. All taxes and fees applied to the transfer will be supported by you.

Once a badge for a named Event attendee has been issued, no substitutions shall be permitted.

As "Ambassadors" are not considered Participants nor Attendees and require a special registration, please refer to the "iMed's Ambassadors Programme Terms and Conditions".

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

If AEFM and any of its collaborators, employees, third-party content providers, or the like, are liable to you for any reason, liability will be limited to the amount paid by you for the Goods and Services in the year in which such liability arose. This limit does not apply to any liability we may have for death or personal injury resulting from our negligence or any other liability that cannot be excluded by law. You agree that any action must be commenced within one (1) year after the claim or cause of action arises.

INDEMNIFICATION

You agree to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless AEFCM, its affiliates, collaborators or employees from and against any and all claims and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, arising from or related in any way to your Event attendance; violation of these Terms, violation of any law or regulation, or violation of any proprietary or privacy right or your participation in a hospitality offering provided by a third party during the Event.
